

The Cyborg Days – Program

	Monday, November 26	Tuesday, November 27	Wednesday, November 28
09:00 – 11:00	Arrival of participants Venue: main building of the University of Zurich, room KOL-G-217 EV	Invited Speaker Session 2 Session chair: Marcello Lenca Philipp Kellmeyer: Hybrid Brains, Hybrid Ethics? Normative Challenges from the Interaction of Humans and Intelligent Neuro-technological Systems Christine Clavier: An Ethical Framework for Evaluating Nudging Technologies	Invited Speaker Session 4 Session chair: Markus Christen Ricardo Chavarriga Lozano: Brain-Machine Symbiosis: Separating Facts from Fiction Sylvain Calinon: Human-Robot Skills Transfer and Collaboration
11:00 – 11:30		Coffee Break	Coffee Break
11:30 – 13:00		Session: Ethics of Algorithms Session chair: Marcello Lenca Agnė Alijauskaitė: Liability and Legal Personhood in Artificial Intelligence Anders Herlitz: Algorithmic Fairness Janina Loh: Responsibility in Human-Machine-Interaction	Session: Becoming a cyborg Session chair: Markus Christen Monika Sziron: Exploring the Question “Is Becoming a Cyborg a Human Right?” André Alves Ferreira: Transhumanism and Personhood Frederic Gilbert: Is it Me or the Machine? Cyborging Human Control
13:00 – 14:00	13:15: Welcome by organizers (Ning Wang & Marcello Lenca & Markus Christen)	Lunch (Mensa)	Lunch (Mensa)
14:00 – 15:30	13:30-15:30: Invited Speaker Session 1 Session chair: Marcello Lenca Judith Burkhard: The Human Condition - An Evolutionary Perspective Fabrice Jotterand: The Unfit Brain and Moral Bio-enhancement: Why Pathologizing Human Behaviour is a Bad Idea	Session: Humans, robots and IT Session chair: Markus Christen Laura Corti: Robot as Quasi-Other or Quasi-Human? Susanne Steigler & Mateusz Dolata: Welcome, IT! Introducing Technologies to Professional Dyadic Advisory Situations Naveen Shamsudhin: Social Robots: An Historical and Multicultural Perspective	Special Session: The Humanitarian Cyborg Session chair: Ning Wang Gloria Gonzalez Fuster: Digital (and) humanitarians: Protecting people while protecting their data Laura Fontaine: Medair Louis Potter: Médecine San Frontière (MSF) Elizabeth Bourke: World Food Program (WFP) Andreas Reis: World Health Organization (WHO)
15:30 – 16:00	Coffee Break	Coffee Break	Coffee Break
16:00 – 17:30	Session: The intimate human redefined Session chair: Marcello Lenca Janina Loh: Emotional Bonds With Non-Humans Jasmine Truong: It Feels like Love: Intimate Encounters with Intelligent Machines Morgane Ghilardi: Do Androids Dream of Sex? Gender, Desire, and Power in Cultural Representations of Androids & AI	16:00-18:00 Invited Speaker Session 3 Session chair: Markus Christen Lina Emilsson: How technology can meet biology and make a difference to the society and people’s life? Keynote talk- Robert Riener: About Cyborgs and the Cybathlon 18:30-21:00 Workshop Dinner (invited & contributing speakers only)	(Closed Project Meeting)

The Cyborg Days – Program

Invited speakers speak 45', followed by a joint panel of 30' / Session speakers speak 20' each, followed by a joint panel of 30'.