Cirdan Capital Management is a young and ambitious investment boutique with an emphasis on technology and innovation. We offer different services such as investment solutions and quantitative strategies.

We are currently looking for an Investment Solutions Assistant intern to work with a small team of Sales and Quants in our London office.

You will work closely with the other sales to deliver quantitative strategies and structured products to retail and professional clients mostly located in Switzerland.

What you will do:

- Pricing of structured products
- Preparing marketing materials for our products
- Developing trade ideas

Qualities that make great candidates:

- BS/MS – Financial Markets preferred.
- Strong understanding of how options work
- Good communication skills
- An ability to work independently and communicate complex ideas
- Fluency in German and Swiss German
- An interest in financial markets
- An interest in Cryptocurrencies

The goal of the internship is to find and train a talent who could stay with us after the internship. Hence, we are looking for candidates who are finishing their studies and who would be able to start a full-time job after completing the internship. The duration of the internship is 3 months but can be modified if necessary. It is required of the intern to be fluent in both German and Swiss German.
