Call for Papers Publication Workshop

GEAS FU Berlin / URPP Asia and Europe University of Zurich
Zurich, Dec 14–15, 2015

The URPP Asia and Europe at University of Zurich and the Graduate School of East Asian Studies (GEAS) at Freie Universität Berlin are planning a joint workshop on publishing and publication strategies to be held on December 14–15, 2015 at the University of Zurich.

The workshop is designed to give 4–5 doctoral candidates from Berlin and Zurich who are in the later stage of their dissertation research the opportunity to discuss a paper draft for publication in a peer-reviewed journal with experienced scholars, journal editors and fellow PhD candidates.

The aim of the workshop is to gain useful insight into all steps of the publication and peer review process, to develop a publishable manuscript afterwards, and to strengthen the personal academic network between fellows from the University of Zurich and the Graduate School of East Asian Studies at FUB.

Interested doctoral candidates are encouraged to submit a proposal (200 words) for a draft of a journal paper to GEAS-UFSP-Workshop@asienundeuropa.uzh.ch by August 23rd, 2015.

Selected candidates will be asked to submit the draft article (8,000–10,000 words including references) by November 8th, 2015. Participation and related funding will be contingent on in time submission of the article draft.

The draft article will be circulated among all participants prior to the workshop.

Doctoral candidates who do not yet have a paper draft may audit the workshop.

GEAS will cover travel and accommodation expenses for all GEAS PhD candidates who are selected to participate. The University of Zurich will provide food and drinks during the workshop.
