

Euro-Asian Knowledgescapes Concepts and Models of Technological and Scientific Knowledge Transfer

Public Lecture Series Spring 2011

The Spring 2011 Lecture Series is a cooperation of the URPP Asia and Europe Research Field “Entangled Histories” and the Research Group “Concepts and Modalities: Practical Knowledge Transmission” at the Max Planck Institute for the History of Science, Berlin.

Organizers:

Prof. Dr. Mareile Flitsch, Department of Social and Cultural Anthropology and Ethnographic Museum/
URPP Asia and Europe, University of Zurich

PD Dr. Dagmar Schäfer, Research Group “Concepts and Modalities: Practical Knowledge Transmission”, Max Planck Institute for the History of Science, Berlin

Further Information: www.asienundeuropa.uzh.ch

Tuesday, 8 March 2011, 18:15 – 20:00

Hörsaal RAI H-41, Rechtswissenschaftliches Institut, Rämistrasse 74, 8001 Zürich

Habitus und Habitat: Ming Literati, Urbanisierung und räumliches Wissen

PD Dr. Dagmar Schäfer, Max Planck Institute for the History of Science, Berlin

Tuesday, 22 March 2011, 18:15 – 20:00

Hörsaal RAI H-41, Rechtswissenschaftliches Institut, Rämistrasse 74, 8001 Zürich

Prolegomenon to the Metahistory of Technology in South Asia

Prof. Dr. Dhruv Raina, University of Heidelberg

Tuesday, 5 April 2011, 18:15 – 20:00

Hörsaal RAI H-41, Rechtswissenschaftliches Institut, Rämistrasse 74, 8001 Zürich

Techniken für Geister: Ethnotopographien des Wissens im Hochland Südostasiens

Prof. Dr. Guido Sprenger, University of Heidelberg

Tuesday, 10 May 2011, 18:15 – 20:00

Hörsaal RAI H-41, Rechtswissenschaftliches Institut, Rämistrasse 74, 8001 Zürich

Knowledge in Motion in the Early Modern World

Prof. Dr. Pamela Smith, Columbia University, New York