

SCCL invites you to a seminar on

From Big Bang to Brexit
– Potential consequences of Brexit with respect to the financial sector
– The future role of London and European financial markets

Thursday 16 November 2017 13.00–18.30

Auditorium (hörsal) no. 5, 3rd floor, Södra husen, Frescati, Stockholm University

Programme below.

Please register here:

<http://sccl.se/machform/view.php?id=149167>

No later than 11 November 2017.

Welcome!

Lars Gorton & Gustaf Sjöberg

Programme

Welcoming

13.00–13.05 Lars Gorton / Gustaf Sjöberg

Opening remarks

13.05–13.25 Kerstin af Jochnick, Deputy Governor of the Riksbank

Brexit, EU and the member states

13.25–13.45 Ulf Bernitz, Professor, Stockholm University

Changes in the regulatory legal surrounding and the role of London as a legal hub

13.45–14.10 Philip Wood, Special Global Counsel, Allen & Overy

Brexit and loan agreements

14.10–14.35 The future role of London as dispute resolving centre and English as a legal lingua franca
Sir Ross Cranston, Professor, London School of Economics

14.35–15.00 The impact of Brexit on Swedish lenders and borrowers
Carl Brodén, Counsel, Roschier

15.00–15.15 The position of English courts and arbitration
The Hon. Mr Justice William Blair

15.15–15.30 Questions and discussion

15.30–16.00 Coffee break

Brexit and the future of financial regulation

- 16.00–16.25                    Challenges for the EU and the UK
William Blair
- 16.25–16.50                    EU Regulation and third country equivalence
Kern Alexander, Professor, University of Cambridge
- 16.50–17.00                    Questions and discussion

The dynamics of supervision and rulemaking in the EU

- 17.00–17.30                    Brexit's impact on ESMA's supervision and supervisory convergence mandate
Felix Flinterman, Head of Supervision Department, ESMA
- 17.30–18.00                    Brexit and Swedish priorities
Aino Bunge, Head of Financial Markets Department, Ministry of Finance

Panel discussion. Questions and concluding remarks.

- 18.00–18.30                    - Kern Alexander
                                         - William Blair
                                         - Carl Brodén
                                         - Aino Bunge
                                         - Ross Cranston
                                         - Felix Flinterman
                                         - Philip Wood

