

Faculty of Law, Maastricht University (The Netherlands)

1. Overall impression

Very interesting programs; lovely city; international university

2. Making preparations

(e.g. administrative matters, finding information)

Generally speaking, the university of Maastricht is well organised. For general questions, it is advisable to consult the information desk at the student service centre. The staff is very friendly and helpful.

3. Contacts/Responsibilities

(e.g. important contact persons at the Partner University and Faculty)

Diane Crook (d.crook@maastrichtuniversity.nl)

4. Housing / Finding accomodation

www.jules-maastricht.com

Jules helps you to find an appropriate accomodation.

5. Arrival

After arriving in Maastricht one must register at the municipality.

6. Telephone (e.g. costs, carriers)

As far as I know, Lebara is the cheapest provider. You can buy a SIM card at Jules.

7. Bank account

It is easy to open up a bank account at a branch office of ING. Do not forget to bring your passport.

8. Transport (e.g. from Switzerland, to the University)

It is possible to take the plane from Zurich to Amsterdam. There is a train from Amsterdam to Maastricht.

9. General information about the Partner Faculty and student life

Much information is provided by the weekly newsletter of the university. Many student organisations are present at the beginning of the first period to give general information about being a student at the university of Maastricht.

10. Teaching and studying at the Partner Faculty

(e.g. program structure, methodology, exams, etc.)

The tutorials are very active. The students are required to take part in the discussions.

11. City (e.g. cultural activities, sports, discounts, nightlife, must-sees, short trips, etc.)

Much information is provided by the weekly newsletter of the university.
