

C.V.

Dr. iur. Corina Heri, LL.M.

Academic Experience

- Since November 2020: postdoctoral researcher at the Institute of Law of the University of Zurich
- 2017-2020: Postdoctoral researcher, Amsterdam Center for International Law, University of Amsterdam (Law and Justice Across Borders research programme, funded by the Jaarsma-Adolfs Foundation)
- 2014-2016: Visiting scholar at the Human Rights Centre at Ghent University, Belgium (with the support of a Doc.Mobility research grant from the Swiss National Science Foundation and the the Janggen-Pöhn Foundation (St. Gallen, Switzerland))

Education

- 2017: awarded a PhD in law by the University of Zurich (summa cum laude). Dissertation topic: The Rights of the Vulnerable under Article 3 ECHR: Promoting Dignity, Equality and Autonomy by Reconceptualizing the Human Rights Subject (supervised by Prof. Dr. Helen Keller; second supervisor Prof. Dr. Daniel Moeckli). Monograph forthcoming with Hart Publishers.
- 2010 – 2012: Double Degree Programme between the University of Zurich and King's College London. Master's degree in law at the University of Zurich (summa cum laude) and LL.M. (KCL) in Public International Law (with distinction)
- 2007 – 2010: Bachelor's degree in law at the University of Zurich
- Compulsory schooling and International Baccalaureate at Christ Church Episcopal School, Greenville, SC, USA

Full CV available upon request.