

Networking event: Meet Your Neighbors

February 04, 2016

The 2nd round of Mittelbau-networking events of the Institute of Psychology took place in BIN 1.B.01.

Doctoral students and post-docs from different chairs from the Depto. of Psychology got together to exchange personal, professional, and research insights.

Insights from ongoing research in 6 chairs were briefly introduced in the first part of the event:

- Psychopathology (Maerker)
- Motivation (Brandstätter)
- Applied Social and Health Psychology (Scholz)
- Work and organizational (Kleinmann)
- Psychotherapy research (Watzke)
- Adulthood development (Freund)
